

MOTHER ULSTER

*With your fresh Lough Neagh,
Natural Giant's Causeway,
Antrim glens that flow with water,
Ever dear to me,
As I sing for thee,
As you treat me like a daughter.*

CHORUS:

*Mother Ulster,
Mother Ulster,
It is you I'll never falter.
Like your mountains Mourne,
Into you we're born,
Standing proud we'll never alter.
Standing free in Mother Ulster.*

*Defend our finest hour,
We'll retain the power,
From all foe who may enslave us,
Weaving common sense,
Into our defence,
Of liberty, they'll not deprave us.*

CHORUS:

*In our Homeland new,
Pledge forever true,
To uphold our national border.
Raise our Red Hand high,
May it ever fly,
To protect rights, law and order.*

CHORUS:

*Sons and daughters, who,
Spread their wings and flew,
To a distant land to prosper'
Hear the echoed drum,
Down the ages come,
Call you home to ancient Ulster.*

CHORUS:

Norman McClelland